

Via Email

You can use Chrome River's Email Memo feature to submit receipt images when you are not logged into the application—for example, when you have snapped a receipt photo with your mobile device on the go. These can be uploaded directly to a specific expense or placed in the Receipt Gallery for you to attach to a report later. See the Email Memo section of this training for more information.